Choose ABVV-Metaal

The next social elections will be taking place between 13-26 May 2024. They are especially important, as they will have consequences for the place where you spend a large proportion of your time - your workplace. They will be held like normal elections - with election campaigns, voting booths, red pencils and electronic voting.

However, only a powerful team can excel. Only a powerful team can defend the rights of workers and achieve great things! Our experienced candidates and enthusiastic new candidates will make it their task to ensure your company is managed effectively over the next 4 years.

Our candidates are ready and committed to:

- Health and safety in the workplace and our society
- Protecting purchasing power for employees and their families
- Putting an end to precarious work
- Decent jobs and job security
- Humane pensions and retirement ages

It is your democratic right to vote.

At the same time, you are not permitted to shade outside the boxes inside the lists or write anything on the voting slip. This would make your vote invalid.
